

Lehnen, Black Shapes

the porcelain doll case, that they keep you in.
we're running out of space in it.
there's no window in the wall for our black shapes in the snow.
you think they taught you all to know, but no.
make no mistakes, they'll be watching you.
i'm planning the escape, it's all in how you think.
it's mind control and facing it.
we're standing on the edge of what you feel and what you know.
they would never let you go, oh no.
make no mistakes, i don't care what they do. (i won't let you go)
