

Leiahdorus, Dissection Of Man

I say a kiss can last forever
For the moment sets us free
The wheels in life they stop turning
Divides between the light

The endings, beginnings...
That set us free
To the old ones, the young ones
We are free

I was walking alone this dark world wide
In what seems so alone
A part was hiding
A child at play
Someone was listening
For an echo fades

The endings, beginnings...
That set us free
To the old ones, the young ones
We are free

Gone away
Here to stay
Brush away
It's ok
Scorch the skies
Hide the sun
Sleep away all the numb
Deep inside i can fly...
With you

Curl in your chest
And i will sleep
And i will wait there patiently
Forever changing things around
I see sweet memories dance around
All i want is you
Nothing else will do
I want you

Have you ever known
Something so true
Finding peace inside the two
Notes fall back
Clocks bring them forward
Sleeping souls they move northward

The endings, beginnings...
That set us free
To the old ones, the young ones
We are free

We are free
