

Leiahdorus, Freeways

I want to see you more than the holidays
The light was about to turn
And you went ahead
Crossing over oceans
To search for the past
Please don't kid yourself
You have what you have
Oh these freeways they
Seem to have no end
Oh I'm just venting
I really hate arguments

My own bridges falling down
You're the only one for me
For you...
For me
Haunting as this may sound
I'm not afraid
You're now changing lanes
Who me?
Yeah you

Lying there in my bed
As I think of you
This connection is all I have
Don't say we're through
Frantic vessels take us down the road
Almost every day
Seems there's nowhere left to go
Pushing down ivory
To clarify my mind
Murky memories
Are you left behind

I see you
I know you do
Where are you
You'll never never know
I miss you
If you only knew
I found you
I know you did
