

Leiahdorus, Paper Girl

Are we going away now
This is what we dreamed
You were right I was wrong
Crumpled paper little girl
And the hours turned to rust
The days into dust
And the years turned into forevermore

Are you still here
Writing your tragedy
The curtain is drawn the show won't go on
Please just go with me

Exhibitions
Display your misery
This behavior is worn
The contract is torn
So just let me be

We're flying along
Sitting hand and hand
A letter folded into a paper airplane
This is how we started
And you told me not to worry
This is how I feel about you still

You tear me to pieces paper girl
Whenever your wind blows
Through my fragile paper world
And I've signed your dotted line
And this heartache now is mine
You've ripped me to pieces... to pieces

Yes I miss you
And who you used to be Something lost something found
Get this plane on the ground
If not for you for me
