

Lemonator, Stars & Satellites

I keep searching for the most beautiful poem
Haven't found it yet, then why should I care
'Cause, I've found the most beautiful listener
Who makes the most unforeseen poem in herself

I'm still workin' on

Take a walk outside to see if there is life
I just can't help myself it's too quiet inside
Talk it over with someone I've never heard of Say the words, I just don't care if they're right

I keep workin' on

I'm after you tonight
Through stars and satellites
I don't know you well
I don't know you well
There's a howling voice inside
It screams that this is life
I don't know you well
I wanna know you well

Crack the bottle open, next I wanna fly
Embrace the moment, share it with you in my mind
What's the story, never got past forewords, I feel
What we've got deserves and takes some time

I keep workin' on

I'm after you tonight
Through stars and satellites
I don't know you well
I don't know you well
There's a howling voice inside
It screams that this is life
I don't know you well
I wanna know you well

I don't know where the hell I am going
I sure know where I'd like to be
Simple questions with simple answers
I've heard of but I don't believe in
