

Leng Tch'e, Strangled by Underwear

(lyrics : Isaac)

Blablablablablablablah,
Blablablablablablablah,
Blablablablablablablaaaaah!!!

Stop bitching me around like that,
stop commanding me all the time, stop acting like a regular know-it-all Stop telling me what to do, stop interfering with my life, don't you see I'm not your property!

How should I give you respect?
I am your son, but that's all,
I am not your toy at all

That fridge is coming too close, some moments later I am sure,
I feel at my eyesocket and there's some blood
Why did you push me fatso, and please don't tell me that you're sorry
'coz you can put your sorry up your ass!

But you show no regret at all, instead you make some fun of it, minimizing your share in what happened Stupid egocentric bastard, how could you ever be my father,
I hope that you get strangled by underwear!
