

Leningrad Cowboys, Lumberjack Lady

I'm working in the forest putting in long days
Swinging with my axe cutting down the trees
They say that I'm a goddess knocking out the boys
Well I don't know maybe it is so
Many men have I sent away
Sometimes things could be easier with someone
But I'm still waiting for Mr. Right to come
Timber says the lady in there somewhere
Deep in the northern Taiga
Singing la, la! Feeling da, da
See her swinging her axe around
She's a hard working Lumber-jack lady
