

Lenna Kuurmaa, Think Idly

Breathe hardly, think idly
I feel life floating through me, through you
Let the chase be our case
One day the first ray of Light will show you change in me, in you
Find your way back to me
Don't waste my mind
Feed your own
Why kill my life
Live your own
Don't waste my mind
Feed your own
Dance till sunrise
Takes your home
Fair maid, it's deep laid, I
Need you, somebody to love, to hate
To cooperate
Bleared by my tears I wish
Life would save me from myself, life itself
Always beside yourself
Don't waste my mind
Feed your own
Why kill my life
Live your own
Don't waste my mind
Feed your own
Dance till sunrise
Takes your home
Don't waste my mind
Feed your own
Why kill my life
Live your own
Don't waste my mind
Feed your own
Dance till sunrise
Takes us home
