

Lennon, And You

Verse:

Why do I do the things I do
Why do I say the things I say
Why am I this way
Why do I run away from life
Into all the wrongs and rights
To you

Chorus:

And you better think before you act
Better speak before you know
What you're getting yourself into
And you better see between the lines
Better read into my mind
Without looking in my eyes
And you

Verse:

In a dream I hear the phone
And I remember someone's home
Waiting for you
Don't remember what I say
Don't know why I feel this way
Do you

Chorus:

And you better think before you act
Better speak before you know
What you're getting yourself into
And you better see between the lines
Better read into my mind
Without looking in my eyes
And you

Chorus:

And you better think before you act
Better speak before you know
What you're getting yourself into
And you better see between the lines
Better read into my mind
Without looking in my eyes
And you
