

Lennon, I Say

Verse:

Shoulder gives way and the ice breaks
A rivers drying up the heart beat of god
Simple to say you're moving on like a train
Drowning out the constant nonsense

Chorus:

I say, I said
But never to your face
So I'll just say it to myself
I say, I said
But never to your face
So I'll just say it to myself

Verse:

So I'm left here seedless, mindless, careless
My emotions more fear than rebellion
Coming out of the shadows of the web I weave
Not close enough to you, not close enough to you

Chorus:

I say, I said
But never to your face
So I'll just say it to myself
I say, I said
But never to your face
So I'll just say it to myself

Chorus:

I say, I said
But never to your face
So I'll just say it to myself
I say, I said
But never to your face
So I'll just say it to myself
