

Lennon, Over & Over

Verse:

How can I speak to you if you can't even speak for yourself
You know you're living by another's rule when you're looking upon the shelf
When they say jump we have to question how high, how fast, and where
We make them feel better if we just look confused and stare

Chorus:

Though it ain't nothing feeling you over and over again
We somewhere lost the feeling though I don't remember when
Though it ain't nothing feeling you over and over again
We somewhere lost the feeling though I can't remember when
Again

Verse:

In a world full of liars we have to play their silly games
As lovers we stand there never knowing what to say
My clothes are off, my hair is down, my voice has nothing to say
I'm not being a bitch, I'm not playing the fool, I'm just playing it your way
Again

Chorus;

Though it ain't nothing feeling you over and over again
We somewhere lost the feeling thought I can't remember when
This baby is crying for the silence that you have taken
It has to be something feeling you over and over and over and over

Verse:

In time I'll take the spotlight and you'll question how I'll act
In a sweet little voice I'll say how do you want me to act
Baby this is my spotlight and this is my choice and I'm taking a chance for me
I'll do what I want but take me now that's the only light I can see

Chorus;

Though it ain't nothing feeling you over and over again
We somewhere lost the feeling thought I can't remember when
This baby is crying for the silence that you have taken
It has to be something feeling you over and over and over and over and..

Outro:

Feeling you over and over and over and
