

Leo Sayer, World Keeps On Turning oo, can't you see the days are growin' by the things I read about the world outside don't seem to matter the world just keeps on turning don't mean a thing to me long as I'm with you, babe there's nothin' that I need oo, can you feel it? now we're a million miles away the world looks oh so small from up here, baby ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah

the world just keeps on turning
oh it's you and me, baby lost in our lovin' dreams no one to tell us what we should or shouldn't do this is the way it is world just keeps on turning
