

Leon Jackson, Caledonia

I don't know if you can see
The changes that have come over me
In these last few days I've been afraid
That I might drift away
So I've been telling old stories singing songs
That make me think about where I came from
And that's the reason I seem
So far away today.
So let me tell you that I love you
And I think about you all the time
Caledonia you're calling me
And now I'm going home
And if I should become a stranger
You know that it would make me more than sad
Caledonia's been everything I've ever had.
Now I've moved on and I've kept on moving
Proved the points that I kept on proving Lost the friends that I needed losing
And others on the way
And I've kissed the ladies and left them crying
Stolen dreams oh there's no denying
And I've travelled hard with my coat tails flying
Somewhere in the wind.
So let me tell you that I love you
And I think about you all the time
Caledonia you're calling me
And now I'm going home
And if I should become a stranger
You know that it would make me more than
Caledonia you're the best friend I've ever had.
[Instrumental]
So let me tell you that I love you
And I think about you all the time
Caledonia you're calling me
And now I'm going home
And if I should become a stranger
You know that it would make me more than
Caledonia's been everything I've ever had.
Caledonia's been everything I've ever had.
Caledonia's been everything I've ever had.
