

Leona Naess, He Is Gone

He has gone
Like meaning from a song
He is gone
Like a vampire in the sun
Apologies, but no thank yous please
He is gone
Like a bullet from a gun
So my wheels are turning
And this heart is yearning

Daddy give me one more chance
At least another dance
Across the floor
Spin me round
Throw me up
And push me down
Throw me back
But pull me up close to your heart

He has gone
Like a teenager from home
Whens been spun
And the funeral march has been sung
And the wheels are turning
And my hearts are burning

Daddy give me one more chance
At least another dance
Across the floor
Spin me round
Throw me up
And push me down
Throw me back
But pull me up close to your heart

Throw me down
And pull me up
Crash into me and then break apart
Throw me down
But pull me up close to your heart

Follow my eyes across the room
You drunken groom
What a surprise
Music stopped the issue has dropped

If you go then I go
If you throw then I throw
But you know and I know
I just can't dance with anyone

Throw me down
Pull me back
Crash into me and then break apart
Pull me up
Just pull me up close to your heart
Throw me down
Pull me up
Crash into me and then fall apart
Pull me up
Just pull me up close to your heart

He is gone
(Fade to end)
