

Leona Naess, Learning As We Go

Did you ever have a day
When it all just came apart
You thought that
This would be the end
This would be the end
This would be the end...

Did it ever hurt so bad
So vicious, cruel or sad
You thought that
Nothing good could come
Nothing good could come
Nothing good could come...

That's just the way
My story goes
Under the soil
Where the blossom grows
There is a darkness
They never show
To you

Yeah I had it pretty good
Growing up late as I could
I was still
Running around
Running around
Running around...

Then the lightning struck me down
Hit this lonely apple tree down
Now I've been
Learning as I go
Learning as I go
Learning as I go...

That's just the way
The story goes
Under the soil
Where the blossom grows
There is a darkness
They never show
To you

Just don't lie to your heart
This will be the hardest part
The light on the circle
Everybody's got a darkness
They all go to
They all run to

We are just
Learning as we go
Learning as we go
Learning as we go...
