

Leonardo'S Bride, Fall

I wish I was a little clearer,
I'm slipping into the slipstream.
I feel just like a fallen angel,
I dreamed last night I was lost at sea.
Don't fall for me 'cause I'm already down.
I've made friends with a boa constrictor,
I've lost my feet in the undertow
And the mirror's like a matrioshka doll
And the big black clouds are out on show.
Don't fall for me 'cause I'm already down.
I don't understand,
I don't understand.
Now I'm screaming underwater
And morpheus won't let me sleep.
The melancholy dawn birds sing to me,
I'm getting used to their company.
Don't fall for me 'cause I'm already down.
