

Les Rita Mitsouko, Singing In The Shower

catherine ringer

it was only a lover's game now we're trapped in the world of our dreams all the same as the evenings rain all the same as the sound of the sea catherine ringer et russell mael

i. i. i. i. i. i. i wouldn't worry 'bout it we're feelin' clean

a little crowded as we're singing in the shower tonight

russell mael

see the water and feel the steam as it's winding around you and me feeling dirty and feeling clean in the center of our fantasy

we could stay here a million years

never knowing the world and its games

red hot water dissolves the fear

red hot kisses drive us insane chorus

russell mael

here we are like a naked choir

in a church that's completely in flames
