

Les Rythmes Digitales, Soft Machine

look into these black amphetamine eyes, and im burning out, my bridge is right to the ground
'cause its a bitch, 'cause i feel twenty-two storeys high and its such a nightmare coming back in london town

'cause i've got lucifer rising in my head i've got lucifer rising in my head
'cause i've got lucifer rising in my head
i've got lucifer rising in my head gimme your needle in(and) a soft-machine a flag's my mercile (?)and i can see for miles 'cause there's a stalker in my midnight acid jeans and it looks like i need it

'cause i've got lucifer rising in my head
i've got lucifer rising in my head like a snake its rising from the dead
'cause i've got lucifer rising in my head

give me your needle honey, give me your crack (x6) (i've got lucifer rising in my head) (x2)

look into these black amphetamine eyes,
and im burning out my bridge is right to the ground
'cause its a bitch, 'cause i feel twenty-two storeys high
and its such a nightmare coming back in london town

i've got lucifer rising in my head
'cause i've got lucifer rising in my head
i've got lucifer rising in my head

lucifer's rising
i said lucifer's rising
lucifer's rising

(soft-machine) (repeat)
