

Lesion, Class 'A' Human

Banished for a reason of State.

...There was no place for all over there.

We built much because much was the emptiness around us.

That gap has never been filled...

... and you know that.

Class 'A' human

As a result of the "Artificial Selection".

Everybody's gonna change, morally an physically.

Human beings or moles?

I've never quite got it.

Small, blind an quick witted...

...maybe that's the only way we'll save ourselves.

Class 'A' human

As a result of the "Artificial Selection".

...We're gonna travel loads...

You hope to find a nice place?

Just like the world I've always talked to you about...

Perhaps that world is just a memory,

A steady Theme in my mind.

Class 'A' human

As a result of the "Artificial Selection".

...Today's needs are yesterday's wastes...
