

Leslie Mills, Ready Or Not

Hanging on a crescent moon lazy summer night for two Radio plays a couple hearts find some wings listen to the planets sing shining our way slow sings across the evening skies sneaking up on you

Ready or not what I got is coming right at ya all my love is enough to open your eyes got a lot, never stop it's totally natural Cuz you're the one
only one I want in my life

It's really such a simple thing i'm holding onto everything when i'm holding you I don't have to think too much I know it every time we touch You know it too
On this moment took us by surprise it's so right

Ready or not
all my love is enough to open your eyes
got a lot, never stop
it's totally natural
Cuz you're the one

Slow sighs across the evening skies sneaking up on you

it's totally natural
And you're the one
Only one I want in my life
