

Leslie Phillips, He's Gonna Hear Your Cryin'

Verse 1:

You hate your life, you've watched it fall apart
Suicidal as you kill your broken heart
But Jesus hurt and bled like you inside
So save your life 'cause he's already died
Whoa, when you think no one can feel your heart break
You think no one can see your soul shake, oh but...

Chorus:

He's gonna hear you crying
He's gonna hear you crying
He's gonna hear you crying
Yeah, He's gonna hear you crying
He's gonna hear you crying
He's gonna hear you crying

Verse 2:

Take the blade and let the water run
Find the vein and then you're almost done
But you don't really wanna bleed your life away
You're scared to die but just to proud to say
Whoa, when you think no one can feel your heart break
You think no one can see your soul shake, oh but...

Repeat Chorus

Bridge:

Oh, He can feel your heart break
Ooo, He can feel your soul shake
Oh, yeah, yeah!
Repeat Chorus
