

Less Than Jake, Green Eyed Monster

How does it feel
to be under the eyes
watching so closely
buy what you can't have what'd you have
wish I could everything you have
and you wonder where your friends have gone how's it feel to have
just a few ones
wish you had more than the one you had everything that you ever had

[Chorus:]
I wish I could find a way to wish it all away
and all that you want from me can disappear
with your jealousy

watching closely
buy what you can't have
wish you had more than the one you had

[Chorus]

Green eyes watching you wishing they could be all of you wait a little moment, take from me everything they take from me [x3]

[Chorus]
