

Less Than Jake, Scott Farcas Takes It On The C

When I think of how things are right now it feels like yeah, it all feels like some kind of circus show and how this town it keeps you pinned down the same old song from years ago

[Chorus:]
I know [alt: Y'know] this place will chew you up and spit you out before you go and when they drag you kicking and screaming from the scene, you know then it's time to leave

When I think of this town right now it's filled with speed freaks and assholes and all kinds of creeps and somehow every new face in every single case in a year or two will be erased

[Chorus]

When I think of how I'm feeling right now somehow I still remember how I felt 4 years ago and when I think of how things are right now
the same old song from years ago

I know this place
will chew you up
spit you out before you go I know, I know
and when they drag you
then it's time to go

(alt: what do I know?
what do I know?
what do I know?
it's the same old song from years ago

[Chorus]
