

Letdown, Empty

You dont know the hell ive been through you dont know the price ive paid you cant see the walls im bracing time im facing all my days

every bit of man i once was every bit of love that i could have living in a moment setting into motion all the other fear i had nobody help me

im not cold im empty sombody heal me hold me make me know me hate me

no one can love me
inside my lonley somone wont feel me show me make me know me im not safe

i cant compel me
my mind wont sell me it wants to fail me hail me let me carry help me

this is my misery
it wants to kill me its in my memory but im shaking when it fails me

take it from me ive taken a week to feel free never a thing dont know a thing to fix me stuck in my head now get me the hell out life is a game i dont wanna play it played me

lost in my ways im lost in my ways and angry

nobody help me im not cold im empty
