

Lethal Bizzle, My eyes

You dont wanna know the things that has happened to me (You dont wanna know)
You dont wanna know
You dont wanna know
You dont wanna know the things that my eyes have seen (You dont wanna know)
You dont wanna know the things that has happened to me (You dont wanna know)
You dont wanna know
You dont wanna know
You dont wanna know the things that my eyes have seen

(Verse 1)

I hear the talk all the time
That the Bizzles changed
Dont check no one
Hes going on strange
Got money now
Hes rolling in the range
Every time I see them I try to explain
But when I try and tell em
They dont wanna listen
Only wish them man can be in my position
When you become famous
You become a target
I got a walk with a ting jus to walk down the market
But you know what?
I miss those days
Young man stampede
Yeah I miss those raves
An organization (?) on stage
Spraying your best lyrics
Cry, screaming in a rage
You know?
But like
When you get to a certain point
You cant do things as you do before
Its not that I think Im too big
Its just the way it is.

(Chorus x 1)

(Verse 2)

Trust. Thats too expensive for me
That shit costs more than a Bentley to me
I nearly even lost my life just because of trust
I nearly even lost my life just because I bust
Guys wanna kill me just because Im doing well
Guys wanna pray and hate that I dont sell
Sometimes I think to myself
What the hell Im not a boaster
Im just tryna eat a meal
Guys wanna hate I dont care how you feel
Extortion has no, I dont care bout your deal
(?) I dont care whos real
Ask me in 10 years Ill say fuck you still
You know?
Its cos of all these situations
Ive had to adapt to it
You get me?
