

LeToya, Torn

A part of me wants to leave you alone
A part of me wants for you to come home
A part of me says I'm livin a lie (and I'm better off without you)

A part of me says to think it through
A part of me says I'm over you
A part of me wants to say goodbye
A part of me is asking why

1st Pre-Chorus:

A part of me wants to leave
But a part of me wants to be here with you and everytime I think that we're over and done you do something that gets me back lovin you and you got me just torn

Chorus:

Torn in between the two Cause I really wanna be with you
But something is telling me that I should leave
You aloneeeeeeeee (leave you alone, leave you alone)
You got me just torn in between the two Cuz I really wanna be with you
But something is telling me that I should leave
You aloneeeeeee (leave you alone, leave you alone)

Verse 2:

What hurts the most is when we started out
It was cool it was everything that loves about
But something happened
Cause Im feeling so burned out
Becuz I can't understand you now
(I just can't understand you noooooowwww noooooooo oh)
A part of me says its all my fault
A part of me says he aint what you want
A part of me says to get my bags
A part of me says I cant do that

2nd Pre-Chorus:

A part of me wants to leave
But a part of me wants to be here with you
And everytime I think that its over and done
You make me fall back in love
You got me just tornbetween the two

Repeat Chorus

Bridge:

So many times I, I was ready to go
So many times I, had my foot out the door
So many times I, I thought to give him a chance
Thought hed be a better man
Now Im sitting here and Im so confused
Cause I keep fighting myself for you
I dont know how much more I can take
But I cant feel this way
YOU GOT ME SO TORN!!!
