

Letter Kills, Clock Is Down

The clock is down and I am losing one day at a time, well who'd have thought our hands would stop right here Maybe I could still forget you for just a little while cause everything you said is coming back in time Maybe I should say goodbye
I'd like to run away
I'd like to say a few things to you,
About the way I feel inside
I'd like to run away
I'd like to say a few things to you,
About the way I feel inside
the clock is down and I am losing one day at a time, I still remember the first time you were here and every time I see your picture I thank god for a smile
cause everything you said
is keeping me in line Maybe I
should say goodbye
I'd like to run away
I'd like to say a few things to you,
About the way I feel inside
I'd like to run away
I'd like to say a few things to you,
About the way I feel inside
The last signs will never stop him
The last signs will never stop him
The last signs will never stop him
The last signs will never stop him
The last signs will never stop him
I tried to fake it, but I couldn't hold it in.
The last signs will never stop him
I couldn't hold it, I couldn't hold it in Maybe I
Should say goodbye
I'd like to run away
I'd like to say a few things to you,
About the way I feel inside
I'd like to run away
I'd like to say a few things to you,
About the way I feel inside
