

Letters To Cleo, Alouette me

So you'd trade me in for them when they're so
Mean i wouldn't do that if i were you why would
You say all those love things when you knew
You'd leave i wouldn't say that if i were you
Alouette and me i don't want to know you lately
Alouette and me why did you go ruin everything
In a dream i held my head up but i'm not brave
Let them see it what you've done stultifier you're
Such a liar you should be so ashamed let them
See it what you've done alouette and me but It's alright and i'm not mad even thought i'm not
There for you no more alouette and me just
Mark off the territory it's the strangest thing it Doesn't hurt but i won't forget the sting but it's Alright and i'm not mad even though i'm not
There for you no more
