

Level 42, All Over You

the sap is rising
and there's no disguising
what I feel for you
so mesmerising
got me fantasising
nothing I won't do

parascending, whoa oh but it's all depending on your sky so blue my wings keep stalling from the sky I'm falling and it's over - all over you

all over you

let me build a nation that bears no relation to the one we knew take inspiration from my own salvation
'cause it's over - all over you get on board the gravy train off the rails if you don't keep me sane justify the things I do just believe that it's all over you

[Spoken]
through the heat-haze and the blue I will shimmer and distort and become what you always knew but were never taught in this sad time take on board the things I say just be sure that you'll be mine someday

that it's over - all over you
