

Level 42, Wings Of Love

I was living in a daydream letting time a days my mind I didn't know what I was missing till you came into my life when I saw you pretty girl felt as going inside when I kissed you pretty girl felt you lighted up my mind Boy I'm crying
I'm on the wings of love
and I know that
It comes from junior love
all in hands we walk together nothing's gonna make us fast but our love wil lives forever
If the sun that's in our heart Making love is also sweet we're lost in each others eyes and I bought infinity that the one turnes to life
Boy I'm flying
I'm on the wings of love
and I know that
It comes from junior love
Now I'm living in a lovedream time and days are passing by Now I realy know what love is I can't help smiling all the time when you're with me pretty girl I feel your warmth by my side when you touch me pretty girl brings that joy often high
Boy I'm flying
and I know that

(and I know that
It comes from junior love)
