

Lexi, Secrets Inside

In a minute, the whole world can change
A minute, and everything is different
Maybe it's fate, maybe it's something else
If the world stopped spinning
Never would be exact to me. As it is now
Let's go back for a second
Or we could stay in this frozen frame
Very unlike you to be like this
Everyday you grow different from this weird sane
Will the days grow shorter
If they do, will you be there
To get me through
How will you get my through
Tell me you love me
Hold me tight
Or you could hate me
Maybe you might
And maybe you do
Stop if you do
Just kiss my lips
And hug me when you can
Me and you together, we dropped
Everything and ran
So far, so fast, so little time
Here's to you
I am in love with you
Love that is strong
Love from me to you
