Lexy & K-Paul, Wide Road

(Feat. Doria)

Wide Road every minute every day, it's not a trace of you, i call your name, i m walking on glue, whereever of love, a brave new day, the winter is off the past, and many miles away, and many miles away, in the snow and sky, my heart is a stone, with the dream of blood, i guess that i m said, but i dont follow you uuuuuuuu youuuuuu

the real cold change, is the opposite of change, wheres the happy wide road, its so far and far apart, every minute every hour, i depend on you, i change my restless smile, in the middle of the world, fear came out of the dark, while weve played sweet games, a melancolic sound in the snow and sky, streckenweise sind wir kalt, streckenweise sind wir gut, am ziel vorbei, but i dont follow you but i dont follow you, in the snow and sky, the real cold change is the opposite of change wheres the happy wide road its so far and far apart
