

Liam And Me, Fast As You Can

I know exactly who you are. I know as far as you may go. But you're trying too hard, yeah you're trying too hard
I know exactly what you want. At least I'm pretty sure I do. But you stay here with me, and there's something
I say now fast as you can go, you better get in your car. And you may not miss me as you try as you can
I know exactly who I am. Its not exactly who I was. Yeah I made my mistakes and I learned to live with them
I hear your talking in your sleep. I see you staring at the door. If there is any chance, you should pick up
I say now fast as you can go, you better get in your car. And you may not miss me as you try as you can
I don't want to lose it all tonight, (right now I feel it taking over) And I think the same each time I see you
I don't want to lose it all tonight, (right now I feel it taking over) But the slightest thing can happen now
Get going fast as you can.
Fast as you can go, you better get in your car. (maybe you could be the only one) And you may not miss me
