

Liam Payne, Bedroom Floor

Baby

heard you've been talking about me lately telling all your friends how much you hate me but who you calling up when you get lonely? when you get lonely

you be saying real real nice real nice things when I'm touching you
you be getting real real real real jealous when it wasn't you
and every now when my iPhone iPhone rings I be telling you
i told you /3x

you said it was over /2x
but your clothes say different on my bedroom floor
but your clothes say different on my bedroom floor /3x

who you always act like you don't want me? don;t make me bring up your dirty laundry we always on and off until you're on me until you're on me

and every now when my iPhone iPhone rings

my bedroom floor your cloths are saying different no you wanna break up just to fix it now oh, baby
