

Liam Payne, Teardrops

Liam Payne prezentuje piosenkę "Teardrops" (premiera 1 marca 2024 r.).

Teardrops
Are falling
Down your face again cos I
Don't know how to love you
When I am broken too
Maybe your words make sense
I could be the problem I'm so sorry
I know we could just be friends
But I don't know how we come down from this softly
Checking on my phone tryna see what I did last night
Baby I'm hating on myself
Cos I hate it when I make you cry
Teardrops
Are falling
Down your face again cos I
Don't know how to love you
When I am broken too
Teardrops
Are falling
I'll make you love me again
But I don't know how to love you
When I am broken too
All we do is break and bend
I'm struggling to see the sunrise lately
Really wish that I could mend
All the little things that make you crazy
Checking on my friend tryna see what I did last night
Lately I'm hating on myself
Cos I hate it when I make you cry
Teardrops
Are falling
Down your face again cos I
Don't know how to love you
When I am broken too
Teardrops
Are falling
I'll make you love me again
I swear I'm gonna learn how to be a better man
Tell me is there
Any room to love you
Any room to hold you
Any room to love you
Any room to hold you
Any room to love you, love you
Any room to hold you
Checking on my phone just to see what I did last night
Oh I'm hating on myself
Cos I hate it when I make you cry
Teardrops
Are falling
When I am broken too
Teardrops
Are falling
Cos I don't know how to love you
When I am broken too
