

Liars Academy, Nightlight

I hear about the ankle biters
The freedom fighters
It's that the ghostwrites
Fear
And I feel that
The world is grinning
My head is spinning
Like Linda Blair
Now if you're going my way
Give me a lift
But just don't leave me alone in here
And I can't believe my eyes
I'm not blind
But just don't leave me alone in here
And by you scaring people
Get your heart pumping
Get your body jumping
And all the minds
That were shattered
But nothing else matters
But the scare
