

Liberty City, Who's She Lovin' Now

Mmm.. Listen, listen
Mmm...hmm...hmm... Listen, listen
Mmm...mmm... Listen, listen
Mmm...mmm... Listen, listen

Let me tell you 'bout my lady
She don't have much to say lately
Kinda acting like she hate me
And that ain't right (no)
Yes I heard it through the grape vine
Pretty soon she won't be mine
Can't believe my lady
Been working overtime
So tell me who...

(Chorus)
Who's she lovin' now (who she lovin'?)
Who's she lovin' now (mmm...)
Got me goin' up and down (got me goin' up and down)
Mmm... Somebody tell me

Who's she lovin' now (who she lovin'?)
Who's she lovin' now (who she rubbin'?)
Got me goin' up and down (got me goin' up and down)
Mmm... Check it out

Heard she been hanging with an old friend (what's his name)
Groupin' up with her girlfriends
Though it looks like a crowd
They be side by side
All night at the stepper set
5 a.m. and she ain't home yet
I might as well join a circus
Cos I'm lookin' like a clown
She got me wonderin'..

Could she be layin' in his bed (he probably got her layin' down)
Could he be pullin' her hair (oh no no no)
Probably screamin' out his name (I don't even know his name)
With me she used to do the same (somebody tell me..)

(Chorus)
Who's she lovin' now (who she lovin'?)
Who's she lovin' now (who she's rubbin')
Got me goin' up and down (got me goin' up and down, up and down)
Mmm... (who's she lovin')

Who's she lovin' now (oh)
Who's she lovin' now (I don't understand it, no)
Got me goin' up and down (got me goin' up and down, up and down)
Mmm... (should've done this long ago..)

See, I should've crawled, I should've begged
I should've spent, I should've prayed
I should've cried, should've come home
Look at me now, everything is wrong

I should've crawled, no, I should've begged
I should've spent, no, I should've prayed
I should've cried, should've come home
Look at me now, I'm about to fall

(Chorus)
Who's she lovin' now (Who...)

Who's she lovin' now (Who's she lovin')
Got me goin' up and down (Got me goin' up and down, up and down)
Mmm... (She's probably creepin' with another man)

Who's she lovin' now (Who's she lovin')
Who's she lovin' now (Who's she lovin')
Got me goin' up and down (Got me goin' up and down, up and down)
Mmm... (I don't understand it, oh)

See, I should have crawled, I should have begged
I should've spent, I should've prayed
I should've cried, should've come home
Look at me now, everything is wrong

I should've crawled, no, I should've begged
I should've spent, no, I should've prayed
I should've cried, should've come home
Look at me now, I'm about to fall

Mmm.. Listen, listen
Mmm...hmm...hmm... Listen, listen
Mmm...mmm... Listen, listen
Mmm...mmm... Listen, listen
