

Lifehouse, Joshua

the air has never felt so warm the sky has never looked this way before there's nothing comforting in change I can't seem to find any peace in this confusion

I can't help my mind from racing and my heart is beating faster than ever before tell me is this really happening I cannot tell if I am dreaming

last night
I saw you standing in the moonlight and you took my hand and we walked beside the river
and you said
don't be afraid, be strong I'm with you

I'm climbing on top of my doubt don't let this fear
get the best of me cause I find my confidence in you and I find my hope when I lose control

last night
I saw you standing in the moonlight
and you took my hand and we walked
beside the river
and you said
don't be afraid, be strong I'm with you

last night
I saw you standing in the moonlight
and you took my hand and we walked
beside the river
and you said
don't be afraid

and last night
I saw you dancing in the moonlight
and you took my hand and we walked
beside the river
and you said
don't be afraid, be strong
I'm with you
I'm with you
I'm with you
I'm with you
