Lifehouse, Just Words

you need to understand,
I need to tell you.
All the times i had the chance,
i let them pass by,
I never knew, 'till it was to late,
I didn't think it would be this way.
I'm here with all the guilt, and everything to say.

I didn't appreciate you,
i took it for granted, just like i always do.
i'm standing all alone,
at the end of the line, paying no mind...
It happened once, it happened again.

chorus:
try as i might, i could never explain,
when i see you, when i hear your name,
memory gained, bringing it all back. (X2)
so much pain, driving me insane.

I got it wrong,
thinking you were easy,
not listening when they told me.
i swore i had you, i thought i could never lose,
too much damage, so many lies, promises broken, everything can't be forgotten...the truth is,
i used you, i didn't realize.
Now it's to late, i'm sorry
so much left i need to say.

Chorus:
try as i might, i could never explain,
when i see you, when i hear your name,
memory gained, bringing it all back. (X2)
so much pain, driving me insane.
