

Lifehouse, Running Away

lost my step

fell back down

lost my breath

chasing you around easy said

hard to do

my pride's halfway dead and I'm halfway you and I never thought I'd be the one who would have to come back down

now I'm running away

running away back on the ground and everytime I lost my way you were there to break my fall

running away to leave it all wait for me

I fell behind honestly

this is my best try

it's not enough

and it will never be if it's good enough for you then that's good enough for me and I never thought I'd be the one

and now I'm running away

I wanna see the one who's standing right in front of me the only peace that I can find and know that only you can be
and I never thought I'd be the one
who would have to come back down
you were there to break my fall
running away to leave it all
I'm running away
