

Lifer, No Need

remember things that I forget it isn't now and wasn't then now i'm laying on my back again i don't care i let you win, again
i don't need anything i've left behind no need for any one to show me how don't lie to me
i've already lied to myself it didn't bother me, so don't bother believe me when that i say that it wasn't me i'm just a friend that likes to pretend i don't know how that you think that i don't care i gave in i let you win
i don't need anything i've left behind
no need for any one to show me how
it didn't bother me, so don't bother me!
it's what i am so understand.
don't lie to me
