

Lifetime, Dwell

i'm having trouble seeing through the haze I try and clear the fog away from my memory of those days I fought so hard to make it through the rain it sickens me to look at you all i see is pain i can't dare hold my stare i look at you and all i remember how easy i lose how quick comes failure i cry open up the sky now i look and don't know what to say i look above with questions of long forgotten days i cant forget past pain i felt the sun will shine and all of the ice will melt never again not this time never bring me down with your hateful selfish lies i rip the blackness from the sky and pray for light to fill my eyes
