

Lights, I Owe You One

What you've done for me
Is more than I can say
Cause I don't know the words
To thank you properly

You pulled me from the grave
And stood me on a hill
And when I was afraid
You made me still

For the love you bring, owe you everything
For the breath you give, You're my cause to live
For everything under the sun, I owe you one

Chaos all around
Explosions and fire
You took me off the ground
And lifted me higher

When trouble knew my name
That was before you
I'll never be the same
Now that I know you
