

Lights Of Euphoria, Burning Ground

Swallowed by the burning ground

Underneath your skin
Inside your twisted mind
Right behind your back
And pounding through your veins
Messiah calls your name
And drink of your blood
He's watching every move
And tells you what to say

I can save your life
Nothing ever ends
Waiting for the healer
Nothing ever ends

Swallowed by the burning ground

Underneath your skin
Inside your twisted mind
Right behind your back
And pounding through your veins
Messiah calls your name
And drink of your blood
He's watching every move
And tells you what to say

Tonight's the night
It's over all too
Soon
A broken-hearted man fading with the
Dying moon
