

Lights Of Euphoria, Dyskonnnect

Never progress
Never rely
All the things you create
We undermined

Never regress
Never deny
The truths you proved
We falsify

Simple times breed suspicious minds
Dyskonnnect from the world we've found
Integrate with the things you hate
Everyone you trust is upside down

Suspicious minds need simple minds
Reconnect to the world they've found
Separate from the hands of fate
Everything you trust is upside down
