

Lights Of Euphoria, Overflow

The sound of screaming souls
Penetrate my body with a thousand holes
Every contact has a price in blood
Misery and hatred and overflow

Penetrate my body now, everywhere
Penetrate my body here, everywhere

Misery and hatred

Straight through the heart
The lack of trust will tear us apart

Love is a divine feeling to reach
People are trying to saw the seeds
And nothing will come their way
Nothing to do
There's nothing to say
