

Lights Of Euphoria, The Night

The strong belief
That keep on dragging him down
The voice of her religion
The pain and the greed
Is bringing him to his knees

He need no eyes
To see that she's bleeding on the inside
The maker of her mind
The shadow right behind
Salvation's so close
But too hard to find

The next turn must reveal a lovely day

May Hell conceal love and delight

Like the touch of rain
The tears fell from her eyes
The emotion within her
Has taken him by surprise

He need no eyes
To see that she's bleeding on the inside
The maker of her mind
The shadow right behind
Salvation's so close
But too hard to find

The next turn must reveal a lovely day

The rhythm of her heart
Did not beat for a while
Who is he in the shadow
Love and delight
