

Lights Of Euphoria, You Are

(The truth became your enemy)

I have seen these eyes before
Shivering eyes, shine bright
I have seen that smile before
Frightened hands, hold tight

Your shiny eyes alight
Show who you used to be
Your thoughts begin to fight
The truth became your enemy

I'll see your face again
Shiny eyes enlight the night
I'll die again
Follow me into the light

Your eyes will shine
Eternal, strong and bright
Your eyes will shine
Mysterious, strong and tight

(The truth became your enemy)

You're the one I do adore
You're the one I ever need
Please come back to me
You're the one to make my heart bleed

I have seen these eyes before
Shivering eyes, shine bright
I have seen that smile before
Frightened hands, hold tight

Your shiny eyes alight
Show who you used to be
Your thoughts begin to fight
The truth became your enemy

(The truth became your enemy)

You're the one I do adore
You're the one I ever need
Please come back to me
You're the one to make my soul freeze
