

Like A Fox, Silence Keeps

Silence keeps midnight sleepers on deliveries
Always trying to be the clever clown
Never to be seen again
They always let me down
They always let me down

Never the first to finish the race
And you're never the last to smile in the face
Of lesser times and broken rhymes
They'll never be on time
They'll never be on

It's just a hint
Of better days we missed
It's just a hint
Of better days we missed
It's just a hint
Of better days we missed

Dip into to little reasons
They're strong than
Frozen stations of better themes
Left-handed dreams
They're ripping at the seams
Of lesser times and broken rhymes
They'll never be on time
They'll never be on

It's just a hint
Of better days we missed
It's just a hint
Of better days we missed
It's just a hint
Of better days we missed
