

Lil Baby, Back And Forth (feat. EST)

It's like sixty girls, just me and gang and no one got they phone
Getting to it
If she out with us, then she won't make it home
I'm a tourist
Fuck me good tonight, tomorrow, I'll be gone

No insurance, we can't stop the car, I'm riding right or wrong
This shit serious, bro just beat his couple charges, he coming home
Don't play, period, I'll fuck a city girl then send her home
All my jewelry hitting G.I.A. certified on every stone
At this point, ain't even gotta put it on, they know wassup with me
I made everybody shine together, you know I fuck with Gee
Sell a thousand pounds of strong, for real, and that was in a week
I been focused but I'm steady climbing, I'm nowhere near my peak
You emotional, won't go to war, you know that she a freak
Like to pop it if I put it on, you know that it ain't cheap
Knock her down and then I break her off, I know that shit ain't free
Naw, for real, I never paid to hit, I'll pay a bitch to leave
Switches hot so we done stepped it up to Glock 17's
I ain't backing down from nothing that can talk or can bleed
Bruh, I'm somewhere at the World Cup, I'm not in yo league
You was playing the game when I was on the block chasing my dreams (Yeah)
